TRADITION TO CELEBRATE RAMADAN

KUALA LUMPUR, MAY 2019 –During this season of giving, associates from Connexion Conference & Event Centre (CCEC) recently distributed 400 packs of bubur lambuk to motorists, workers and residents at Bangsar South. Held for the second time, the programme was organized by the Sports & Social Club of CCEC.

CCEC associates from various departments came together to prepare the humble but well-loved item. The cooking process took more than two hours before it is ready for packing and distribution. The cooking started as early as 8.00am and was ready for the public by noon.

The porridge was distributed at 4pm to the public including those in vehicles on Jalan Kerinchi.

“Bubur Lambuk is often regarded as a comfort food for Muslims during the fasting month and we wanted take part and share the joy of ‘Buka Puasa’ with our neighbours in the Bangsar South area’, said Brendon Lee, General Manager of Connexion Conference & Convention Centre.

Road users were pleasantly surprised by the arrangement and the last packet was given away by 5.30pm.
